Weidmüller hosts IICA @Home

Weidmüller Head Office, 43 Huntingwood Drive, Huntingwood NSW: 28 August 2018, 6PM

Weidmüller is delighted to host the IICA @Home on Tuesday, 28 August at our Australian office located in Huntingwood. On this night, Rafael Koenig, Weidmüller Australia Managing Director will showcase Weidmüller's industrial assembly and value add services.

Mark Goodsell, NSW Head of Ai Group and Executive Director of Australian Advanced Manufacturing Council will be our guest speaker for the evening and will deliver an address on Australian manufacturing – change, challenge and opportunity.

You have the opportunity to test your skills with our latest A-Series PUSH-IN terminals wiring challenge. Great prizes to be won. We look forward to seeing you on the night!
